Shri B.P. Mishra, Advocate for the petitioners.

Shri V.V.S. Murthy, Addl. Standing Counsel for Union of India.

Heard on I.A.No.4183/2003 for amendment.

The application is allowed. Amendment be incorporated.

Heard finally with consent.

The matter relates to retiral dues. Petitioners case is that they opted for retirement under Voluntary Retirement Scheme promulgated by respondent company. It was accepted but the amount which was required to be paid has not been paid.

Counsel for the respondents submitted that 80% of the amount has been paid to the petitioners and for payment of the rest amount some formalities are required to be completed. It is also submitted that the amount was not paid as the accommodation was not vacated by the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the petitioners on the other hand submitted that now they have vacated the accommodation alloted to them & Completed formalities

In that view of the matter, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to subhmit a representation along with copy of the
